

Epsilon Sigma Omicron Info

PURPOSE:

An honorary educational society which provides a structured reading program to clubwomen that is educational and stimulates a desire for self-fulfillment.

MEMBERSHIP STANDARDS:

PLEDGE: One who has obtained a GFWC E.S.O. Handbook from the GFWC/Iowa Headquarters' Office and is working to qualify for membership. At least one book report must be filed every calendar year to keep the file active.

MEMBER: One who has read at least 16 books from 4 categories and filed book reports on them. It is preferred that reports be filed in groups of 4. Members will receive certificates at the annual State Convention and will be qualified to buy and wear the ESO pin.

STAR LEVEL: A member who continues to read and file reports on 4 books from 6 additional categories. She will receive a certificate.

TORCH LEVEL: A member who completes and reports on 4 books from 6 different categories. She will be eligible to purchase and wear the Torch Guard on her ESO pin. A certificate will be awarded.

CENTURY AWARD: Certificates will be awarded to those members who read 100 books. There are also certificates available for the "Second Century", 200 books, and the "Third Century", 300 books.

HOW TO BECOME INVOLVED:

Send $2 to GFWC/IOWA Headquarters requesting an E.S.O. Handbook. An E.S.O Handbook containing instructions and reading lists will be sent. Any E.S.O. Handbook may be used. New handbooks are published every two years. The E.S.O reading list can be downloaded from the GFWC website www.gfwc.org.

DISTRICT CHAIRMEN:

SE	Ann Zlabek	PO Box 6, Walker 52352	319-448-4589
NE	Caroline Bybee	304 Rosemere Ln., Maquoketa 52060	563-652-5525
NW	Cathy Hanson	506 Grand, PO Box 384, Burt 50522	509-521-1675
SW	Karon Keefe-Dunbar	1012 Park Ln., Osceola 50213	641-342-3027