Epsilon Sigma Omicron Handbook

Guide for GFWC's Reading Groups

This handbook is best used by members and state chairmen of newly-established state ESO chapters or state chapters that do not have their own state guidelines, but is also helpful to all ESO members and chapters. If your state chapter has its own rules and guidelines, please consult them. Any questions regarding the contents of this handbook should be directed to the GFWC Education and Libraries Community Service Program Chairman. —Revised June 2022

Introduction to ESO

Epsilon Sigma Omicron (ESO) is an honorary educational society open to all per-capita dues paying GFWC federated clubs. More than 70 years ago, the ESO program became a permanent part of the GFWC Education Community Service Program. Through ESO, clubwomen are given direction in planned reading for self-enrichment and personal growth. Over the years, many GFWC clubwomen have profited from this unique self-improvement program, seen as vital by the members it directly benefits. The purpose of ESO is to provide clubwomen with a structural reading program, which is educational and stimulates a desire for self-improvement. The following are the goals of the ESO:

- To encourage clubwomen's pursuit of higher education
- To create an additional means to unite women in volunteerism
- To develop a support network for women returning to school
- To improve current and develop new study skills
- To stimulate systematic home reading and study with minimum supervision
- To encourage the establishment of home libraries and
- To encourage the formation of reading/study/discussion groups.

ESO can take the form of a reading group or an individual's personal reading pursuit. The program provides membership, awards/certificates, pins, reading lists, and a framework in which to pursue continued self-improvement through reading. Many clubs combine club programming with ESO related activities, such as reading awareness and book promotion.

HISTORY OF ESO

ESO was established in 1928 by the Indiana Federation of Clubs. In 1930, it was incorporated as a national sorority; the Indiana society became the Alpha chapter. Later that same year, the Washington state chapter became the Beta chapter. Since then, approximately 47 states have followed the lead of Indiana and Washington by establishing their own state ESO chapters.

The first national convention of ESO was held at the 1932 GFWC Convention in Seattle, Washington. In 1940, ESO gave up its incorporation as a national sorority and became a Special Committee of GFWC. This relationship needed clarification. In 1945, Mrs. Fred A. Bell, then GFWC ESO chairman, appointed Mrs. W.D Keenan of the Alpha chapter as a consultant. Mrs. Keenan worked with Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Meyers, organizer and first president of ESO, to present rules and regulations to meet both ESO and GFWC requirements and to clarify the status of the organization. Their work was completed in 1950 when the rules were modified to include ESO as a division of the Education Department of GFWC. The establishment of ESO was aided by the Extension Division of the University of Indiana. The Extension Division began creating "reading courses" which gave college credit, applicable to a University degree or membership in ESO. The enrollment fee in 1935 was $1 for one course or $3 for four courses. The original ESO reading courses were compiled by the American Library Association, the United States Office of Education, Purdue University, and Indiana University. Clubwomen could choose from over 100 courses. Reading courses ranged in subject matter from American heroes to interior decoration to U.S foreign relations.

ESO TODAY

Today ESO is part of the GFWC Education and Libraries Community Service Program with clubs across the country continuing to participate in this self-improvement reading program. Since 1928, ESO has evolved into a diverse program with state chapters personalizing their programs based on clubwomen's needs and their communities. ESO members should follow the guidelines of their state ESO chapter. If a state chapter does not exist, one must be established before clubwomen can participate. The rules and regulations included in this handbook should be used as a framework for establishing and administering state ESO chapters. Questions regarding the administration of ESO on the local and state levels should be directed to the GFWC Education and Libraries Program Chairman (who also serves as ESO chairman).

ESO Membership Information

BENEFITS OF ESO MEMBERSHIP

Unlike other GFWC programs, ESO exists specifically for the benefit of clubwomen. GFWC programs are traditionally community improvement based. Although ESO is beneficial to the community, its main focus is directed at club members. Reading groups have become commonplace in many communities recently because of their unique benefits. Members who participate in reading groups are able to experience intellectual discussions on a variety of books, create new friendships, coalesce with various members of the community, and gain knowledge about life, love, family, politics, cultures, technology, the world around them, and many other topics.

HOW TO BECOME AN ESO MEMBER

Step 1: Contact your state ESO chairman to receive your state ESO guidelines. Many states have their own requirements regarding becoming an ESO pledge and member. If your state does not have an ESO chapter, one must be chartered (please see Establishing a State ESO Chapter).

Step 2: Interested GFWC members must first pass through the ESO pledge stage before they can become ESO members. The completion of an ESO pledge application (see page 14) is needed before a pledge can begin working towards membership status. The pledge application must be sent to the respective or state ESO chairman, who will begin tracking the pledge's progress. A pledge qualifies for membership at her own pace, finishing in a few weeks or working slowly throughout a longer period of time. After proper completion of 16 books, the pledge receives a certificate verifying her ESO membership from her club and/or state.

MEMBER RESPONSIBILITIES

ESO members are encouraged to participate in club programs such as:

- Reading
- Participating in reading/study/discussion groups
- Working to achieve higher ESO levels
- Continuing to pursue self-improvement through personal study

Reading is, of course, the main responsibility of an ESO member. Once books are completed, the member is required to complete a brief form, giving the title and brief opinion of the book read. The form is submitted to the club ESO chair to keep track of each member's ESO levels, which are based on the number of books read. Clubs without an ESO chair may submit reports to the state ESO chair. The club report form must be sent to the State ESO chair based on each state's requirements. Report forms will not be returned. State ESO chairmen will issue certificates and awards based on report forms received.

ESO LEVELS

There are many opportunities for ESO members to work their way up through the ESO levels. Clubwomen move to a new ESO level by completing a set of reading list requirements. The reading list is divided into subject categories. To complete a category, a member must read and report on four (4) books from that category. State ESO chapters may have different requirements; please consult your state guidelines.

○ ESO Levels

- Pledge: A Pledge has obtained an enrollment application and has started to fulfill the reading requirements.
- Member: A Member has completed four books from four different categories, for a total of 16 books. She is then eligible to wear the ESO pin and receive a membership certificate.
- Star Level: A Star level member has completed four books from ten different categories, for a total of 40 books. She will then receive a Star level membership certificate.
- Torch Level: A Torch level member has completed four books from 16 different categories, for a total of 64 books read. She is then eligible to wear the ESO Torch Guard and receive the Torch level membership certificate.
- Century Award: A Century Award member has completed 100 books. She can continue to the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Century Award levels and will be eligible to receive the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and/or sixth century membership certificates.
- Diamond Award: A Diamond Award member has completed 1,000 books. She will be eligible to receive a Diamond Award certificate.

ESO AWARDS

As members move up in ESO levels, they are eligible for a variety of pins and certificates. State ESO chairmen are responsible for tracking the ESO levels of their state members with submission by a club report for all ESO club members or by individual club member reports. Members should report to state ESO chairmen to ensure accurate ESO level records are maintained.

- ESO certificates (Member, Star, Torch, Century, Second Century, etc.) are available from the GFWC Marketplace (800-443-GFWC (4392) or www.GFWC.org/Marketplace/ through the member portal. Certificates can be ordered by ESO chairmen.
- ESO pins (ESO Member pin and ESO Torch pin) are available from the GFWC Marketplace (800443-GFWC (4392) or www.GFWC.org/Marketplace/ through the member portal. Members are eligible to order pins once they have received the certificates that validate their ESO level.
- National ESO awards to recognize outstanding promotion of ESO and outstanding participation in ESO will be awarded annually to one State Federation in each membership category. The winners will be chosen by the GFWC Education and Libraries chairman based on ESO information found in the GFWC Statistical Forms and State Award Entries.

State ESO Chairmen Information

STATE ESO CHAIRMEN RESPONSIBILITIES

State ESO Chairmen should be active ESO members and are appointed by State Presidents. If necessary, pledges actively pursuing ESO membership can be appointed as state ESO chairmen. In the event the state does not have an ESO chairman, the Education and Libraries Chairman will facilitate the ESO program. Responsibilities include:

- Working closely with the state administrative agency, if chapter has an administrative agency.
- Promoting and distributing the ESO reading list to all ESO members and prospective members. If the state ESO chapter has its own reading list, the state chairman compiles, reviews, and revises that list.
- Reporting annually to the GFWC Education and Libraries Chairman.
- Keeping records of state's ESO members, including verification of ESO levels achieved and number of books completed. State ESO chairmen receive completed pledge applications and book report forms from each state member. The report forms represent each category completed. State chairmen are responsible for tracking their fellow members' progress based on these report forms. The records should be kept in a fashion that can be passed on to the next administration. A spreadsheet to easily be shared with the next administration is provided to the State Chairman by the GFWC Education and Libraries Chairman.
- Ordering ESO certificates from the GFWC Marketplace and completing and distributing to appropriate members.
- Informing members of their ESO pin eligibility.
- Encouraging clubwomen to participate in ESO, promoting ESO through state magazines, newsletters, and through materials prepared for district, state, and region meetings and conventions.
- Promoting ESO reading groups on the local and state level.

Organizing a State ESO Chapter

ESTABLISHING A STATE ESO CHAPTER

A GFWC member who is interested in becoming an ESO member must contact her State President to determine if an ESO chapter exists in her state or refer to the list on page 12. If there is no state ESO chapter, one must be established before ESO activities can begin. The following steps need to be taken to charter a new ESO state chapter:

- Interested members must contact their State President for approval to establish a state ESO chapter. Once approval is granted, the State President must appoint a state ESO chairman who is willing to take on all state ESO chairman responsibilities.
- The appointed state ESO chairman must request a state ESO charter application from the GFWC Programs Department at programs@gfwc.org. The application requires the state to uphold the goals of the ESO and participate in ESO programs. The signatures of the State President and state ESO chairman, or Education and Libraries Chairman if a state ESO chairman is not appointed, are necessary on the application.
- Upon approval of the application, the state will receive a state ESO charter, from GFWC Headquarters, signed by the GFWC International President and the GFWC Education and Libraries Community Service Program Chairman.

REACTIVATING A STATE ESO CHAPTER

A list of established state ESO chapters can be found on page 12 of this handbook. Over time, many state ESO chapters have become inactive. If a state already has an established ESO chapter, but no state chairman or active program, that chapter needs to be reactivated. Follow these steps to reactivate an ESO state chapter:

- Consult the list of established ESO chapters to see if a state ESO chapter has already been established.
- Contact the State President to verify existence of active chapter.
- Interested members need to contact their respective State President to solicit approval to reactivate the state ESO chapter.
- Once approval is granted, the State President must appoint a state ESO chairman who is willing to take on all state ESO chairman responsibilities.
- The state ESO chairman must request a state ESO reactivation charter application from the GFWC Programs Department. The application requires the state to uphold the goals of ESO and participate in the ESO programs. The signatures of the State President and the state ESO chairman are necessary on the application.
- Upon approval of the application, the state will receive a state ESO reactivation charter from GFWC Headquarters, signed by the GFWC International President and the national GFWC Education and Libraries Community Service Program Chairman.

THE CREST

Bertha J. Lacey, a well-known Indiana artist, designed the crest for ESO in the form of a shield, the ancient symbol of protection. The shield is divided into sections. The center section represents the American home, with a pathway leading into the world of achievement. In the top left section, the rising sun stands for enlightenment. The palm leaf in the upper central section of the shield is the symbol of victory through effort.

The crescent moon at the upper right denotes enlightenment pursued in the night-time hours of study. The lower left section shows the lyre which is the symbol for fine arts. The wheat in the lower right symbolizes the idea that we reap what we sow. The lower central section shows an open book which represents all knowledge. Below the crest is the torsade bearing the name Epsilon Sigma Omicron. The torsade was originally a wreath of twisted ribbon presented to a crusader when he set out upon a quest. The dove of peace, which crowns the crest, symbolizes aspiration.

THE PIN

The ESO pin was also designed by Bertha J. Lacey. The pin is shaped like a kite and is gold, symbolizing the desire to increase cultural knowledge. On a blue field which denotes truth, is a half-risen sun bearing the Greek Letters ESO—Epsilon Sigma Omicron. The ESO pin may be worn by any member who has met the membership qualifications.

THE MOTTO

The motto of Epsilon Sigma Omicron is “Enlighten Your Own Pathway,” which was chosen by Mrs. Quincey A. Myers and translated from Greek at the Indiana University. ESO are the initial letters for the Greek phrase, “Epsilon ten sautou hoden” which translates literally into “Enlighten the pathway of yourself.”

THE SONG

Tune “On the Banks of the Wabash”

Words by Constance Hais, ESO Beta Chapter

Of times mem’ry takes us back to happy schooldays
When the world of knowledge widened to our view
All the past was ours- the future rich in promise
And each year the goal for us was set anew
Commencement sent us out to make our own goals

If we would win success and forward go;
The way we trod was often dull and aimless,
Till at last we found the torch of ESO

Now the light is shining fair along the pathway
Gleaming clear and bright the way our feet must go;
And the torch we carry will continue burning
All the years we're faithful to ESO

THE LITANY

Written by Rose Katterhenry, ESO Alpha Chapter

Light thine own pathway, and by each beaming ray,
May we see reflected, each passing hour of the day
Some arduous task accomplished, some valiant deed well done,
Renew some high endeavor, record the victory won.

THE GRACE

Tune "Old Hundred"

Written by ES Alpha Chapter

Dear Lord, to Thee our thanks we give,
For life and love and daily bread
In sisterhood, O may we live
And by Thy spirit, ever be led. Amen

THE FLOWERS AND COLORS

Flower: Gardenia

Colors: Blue, signifying fidelity to purpose. White, signifying light.

THE CONSTITUTION
